DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20250

Rec'd 27 Sept 75

Mr. William E. Colby
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
McLean, Virginia 22101

Dear Mr. Colby:

I was very sorry that you were unable to be with us at the Savings Bonds Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, September 10, 1975. It was a stimulating meeting and you were most ably represented by Mr. F. W. M. Janney. I am sure he will fill you in on all the details. Attached is a program of events which I know you will find of interest. We were honored by having Vice President Rockefeller present awards to the twenty-two departments and agencies that had attained 70% or higher employee participation as a result of the 1975 Savings Bonds campaign.

As Vice President Rockefeller stated, "You can take enormous personal satisfaction in making the Savings Bonds campaign a success. The beneficiaries are going to be the individuals who buy these bonds -- and the Nation that offers them. You are selling a stake in this country. And that has to be the soundest equity in any American's portfolio."

The Central Intelligence Agency did not make the Savings Bonds Honor Roll in 1975, however, I am confident under your leadership and active support you will be an award recipient in a similar ceremony in 1976.

Thank you for your continued interest in this important program.

Sincerely,

Earl L. Butz

EARL L. BUTZ
Secretary
